When I met you, you were so unique
Had a little thing I'd love to keep Every movement carried so much mystique
I knew right then I'd carry on, to you I knew my heart belonged

You, you give me something
And I don't know what to do
It'd be just me and you who do it
Something that nobody else can give
See my heart, has started thumpin'
You're the one I truly know I dig

Like the sunbeams from a perfect summer's day
Heaven only seems a step away
When I'm with you, I just celebrate
I'm hoping my message gets through
There's never been someone like you

I had nobody, on you I would lean
Cos you got these little things that I know I've never seen

You, you give me something to do
And I don't know what to do
It'd be just me and you who do it
Something that nobody else has got
And this love, that I've been wanting
Oh baby's turning out too fast to stop

You, you give me something to do
And I don't know what to do
It'd be just me and you who do it
Something that nobody else can give
See my heart has started thumpin'
You're the one I truly know I dig

The food is cold,
Your eyes are cold,
The window's cold,
The bed is cold,

The chair is hard,
Your voice is hard,
The money's hard,
The living's hard,

You, you give me something to do
And I don't know what to do
It'd be just me and you who do it
Something that nobody else can give
See my heart has started thumpin'
You're the one I truly know I dig

You, you give me something to do
And I don't know what to do
It'd be just me and you who do it
Something that nobody else can give
See my heart has started thumpin'
You're the one I truly know I dig
