Were in Hollywood,
And you're faker then plastic,

In Hollywood,
You're just so fantastic,

Hollywood,
Where you're not real,

And in Hollywood,
Plastic surgery's a deal,

I see you walking over there,
And you're posing like a slut,

Those cameras they flash,
The Paparazzi's will cash,

I bet you feel big,
When you know you're really small,

It doesn't hurt to dream,
So you'll live to have it all,

It's time for you to hide,
Cause your going nation wide,

What you want to begin,
You're wishing it would end,

They say you shine bright,
But you're duller in the night,

What you want to begin,
You're wishing it would end,

Were in Hollywood,
And you're faker then plastic,

In Hollywood,
You're just so fantastic,

Hollywood,
Where you're not real,

And in Hollywood,
Plastic surgery's a deal,

Hollywood, Hollywood, Were in Hollywood, I said
Hollywood
Hollywood, Were in Hollywood, I said Hollywood and it feels so good!

You know it feels great,
When you're being such a fake,

Pretentious cash flow,
But you got nothing to show,

You're think you're up front,
When you're really in the back,

In a time like this,
You're not meant to last!

It's time for you to hide,
Cause your going nation wide,

What you want to begin,
You're wishing it would end,

They say you shine bright,
But you're duller in the night,

What you want to begin,
You're wishing it would end!
