Put a chip in your head
Put a chip in your head
We oughta put a chip in your head

Put a chip in your
Put a chip in your

Open up your mind up and let me put it in Piece of heaven got you saying R-O-B-O for the win
I'm ready to attack even if you got an attitude
You love me, I love you back is how I show my gratitude

So many questions, well I'm ready with an answer
If you're done, I'm the chemo to your cancer
Maybe, maybe, maybe if you ask me just right
Baby, baby, baby, then I give it to you all night

Put a chip in your head, put a chip in your head
Put a chip in your head, put a chip in your head
Put a chip in your head, put a chip in your head
Put a chip in your head, put a chip in your head
Put a chip in your head, put a chip in your head
Put a chip in your head, put a chip in your head
Put a chip in your head, put a chip in your head
Put a chip in your head, put a chip in your head

Song so catchy, gonna spread like AIDS
Words so absurd, they're like lyric grenades
Has a message so I said I'll be the white boy Drake

Do like him, give everybody free chips to take

So they took him and they hook him like some big-mouth bass
First they make the beat drop, then you shake your...
Half a million downloads, no, I don't fake
And the labels still avoid me, what a big mistake

Put a chip in your head, put a chip in your head
Put a chip in your head, put a chip in your head
Put a chip in your head, put a chip in your head
Put a chip in your head, put a chip in your head

Put a chip in your head, put a chip in your head
Put a chip in your head, put a chip in your head
Put a chip in your head, put a chip in your head
Put a chip in your head, put a chip in your head

Baby, baby, baby, feel the 123
I put it in your head like RFID
Said baby, baby, baby, feel the 123
I put it in your head like RFID

Put a chip in your head, put a chip in your head
Put a chip in your head, put a chip in your head
Put a chip in your head, put a chip in your head
Put a chip in your head, put a chip in your head
Put a chip in your head, put a chip in your head
Put a chip in your head, put a chip in your head
Put a chip in your head, put a chip in your head
Put a chip in your head, put a chip in your head
