Simon Curtis "Everything Can Change"

Do do do do do
There's no easy way to figure out
Why everything we planned gets turned around
Nothing accidental, got it down to a "T"

So why do things never end the way you think there gonna be
If all is for sure is that no one knows that don't be too quick to decide
Cause everything can change when you least expect it

Can't stop what you can't control
Gotta learn how to just let go
Everything can change
No, you can't perfect it
Some things you can't explain

Yeah!

000000000000000000

Do do do do do do

There's no easy way to plan ahead Can't wait to get there, but we end up here instead

Anything can happen due to what it does

Somethings turned out much better the way it is with us If all is for sure is that no one knows that don't be too quick to decide

Cause everything can change when you least expect it

Can't stop what you can't control

Gotta learn how to just let go

Everything can (oh!) change

No you can't perfect it

Somethings you can't explain

Everything can change when you least expect it

Can't stop what you can't control

Gotta learn how to just let go

Everything (yeaah) can change

No, you can't profect it

Somethings you can't explain

Everything can change (everything can change)

Can't stop what you can't control Gotta learn how to just let go Everything can change, everything can change Somethings you can't explain Everything can change
