Is this what you waited for for
A chance to take the floor
With my head
'Cause no one else is hanging on
The people who stood are long gone
You've free reign

And my blood runs cold
That someone you could have known
Would wish you to dust and bones
Hemorrhaging

What now you tell me I'm wrong
Play on my trust like you've always done
It won't fly
I had to watch people leave
Don't recall you there to comfort me
So don't lie

Light the sky
Take me homewards
All this time
Moving forwards (x3)

Light the sky
Take me homewards

All this time (x4)
