Hold me if you dare, I am not afraid
I can give back anything you take Kiss me if you want, I am not ashamed
This is me and I ain't gonna change
I don't need pray 'cause I don't need it any other way
I don't need to pray, anymore
I don't need to say what was better said yesterday
I won't be to blame cause I know what I'm like
And I'm really alright
Babe if you could care less I believe I've been blessed I'm hanging on but only just
I won't be ashamed for there's nothing left to hide
I won't be to blame 'cause I know what I'm like, and I'm really alright
I can give back anything you take, oh Cause I don't need pray cause I don't need it any other way
I don't need to pray, anymore
I don't need to say what was better said yesterday
I won't be to blame 'cause I know what I'm like
I don't need to pray no
I don't need to pray anymore
I won't be to blame 'cause I know what I'm like, and I'm
really alright
Said I know I'm alright
Said I 'm all alright
Said I 'm all alright
Really alright
Really alright
