She wanted me, I know she did, I know these things Didn't have to tell me though she could have
She spoke of me to her best friend (my ears stings)
Didn't want to let on that was her choice
Famously, courageously, it's your say
In time, in life you have a choice and mind response-ability
And it's up to us to get it right
Divine response-ability, ability, ability
I could have been, I know I could but as it was I chose not to speak out but wish I would have Weird how it is a classic thing, panicking
A self inflicted, nervous, lost control
Aimlessly, courageously it's your say
In time in life you have a choice
And mind response-ability
And it's up to us to get it right
Divine response-ability, ability, ability
Famously, courageously it's you say
In time, in life you have a choice and mind response-
ability
And it's up to us to get it right
Divine, response-ability
