Time will heal the wounds of heartbreak
Heal the hurt of heartache
Time will be the healer
No-one said it would be easy
The pain won't seem to leave me
I've got some kind of fever
I know I caused you all your sorrow
So I'll wait until tomorrow
To have you I must free you
'Cause there's no mercy and I'm still hurting
But the world will keep on turning
Time will heal the wounds of heartbreak
Heal the hurt of heartache
Time will be the keeper
Time will make you miss your lover, it can help you to discover
You've got to trust in time the healer
Hope is hanging in my head
This is a lost I can't accept, for how long will I need her
I take back every word I said, all my actions I regret
But will I ever be forgiven
Cause there's no mercy and I'm still hurting
But the world will keep on turning
Time will heal the wounds of heartbreak
Heal the hurt of heartache
Time will be the keeper
Time will make you miss your lover,
Then you'll really know that you love her
You've got to trust in time the healer
No-one will ever replace her, on my lips I still taste her
But I'll drive her away if I chase her,
I've gotta put my trust in time the healer yeah,
Trust in time the healer, come on Trust in time the healer
Cause there's no mercy and I'm still hurting
But the world will keep on turning
Time will heal the wounds of heartbreak
Heal the hurt of heartache
Time will be the keeper, keeper, keeper
Time will make you miss your lover it can help you to recover
You've got to trust in time the healer
