I was damned from the day i was born
No wake up call
I was locked into falling apart
And said to waste it all
I was out of control, cold
And I think it showed
And it's gettin hard to play the part, but's it's all that i no
And it's getting so complicated (so complicated)

I guess what im trying to say is
If you give a man hope, you no, something to beleive in
You get more if you give a little sometimes
You get more if you give a little sometimes
Forget about gold, oh no
You no you don't need it (you don't even need it)
Its clear to see, you gota give a man hope,
You no, you no, you no, you gota give a man hope

No where to stay, no place called home
What happened here, when you step into the unknown,
Outside my comfort zone
Oh yeah
I'm not the man you used to no
I'm in control, guna kick back, relax
Not my low ( not to sure on this line)

Coz it's gettin so complicated (so complicated)
I guess what im tryin to say is
If you give a man hope, you no, something to beleive in
You get more if you give a little sometimes
You get more if you give a little sometimes
Forget about gold, oh no
You no you don't need it (you don't even need it)
Its clear to see,

Things will never be the same again
Give a man a little trust and faith
A ray of light, I can see day break ahead
A little confidence is all it takes
And whatever happens from today,
They see the good in me, the light comes shinning through

I guess all im tryin to say is
If you give a man hope, you no, something to beleive in
You get more if you give a little sometimes
You get more if you give a little sometimes
Forget about gold, oh no
You no you don't need it (you don't even need it)

If you give a man hope, you no, something to beleive in
You get more if you give a little sometimes
You get more if you give a little sometimes
Forget about gold, oh no
You no you don't need it (you don't even need it)
Its clear to see
You no you no you no, youve gota give a man hope
