I know exactly what I'm talking about
'cos I've been there I've been scared
So many deals that I've been in and then out Turned dreams into nightmares
Then I realised my wants only criticised my needs
(I didn't make enough cheese)
I couldn't figure out my wrongs and I found it hard to breathe

Have a right to cry (sometimes)
When I'm under the weather feels like my world is coming down
And my job could be better
That's yesterday's news,
Tomorrow this is what we can do

[CHORUS]
Seize the day, change your life
Find all of your limits in the sky
Take a moment, clear your mind
Believe that your angels never lie
Change is good, just keep it moving
Uncover new colours that are kind
Different ways, brand new heights
Don't worry just take you time
And you'll be fine

Too many people get frightened of lightning
Always strikes them in the same place twice
Never seeking true guidance
It might be they need a little direction in life

It's alright to cry (sometimes)
When I'm under the weather feels like my world is coming down
And my job could be better
Yeah, that's today's news,
Tomorrow this is what we can do

[CHORUS]

You don't have to be fed up each and every day of your life
Stop complaining, just stop all the hating
Open your eyes
And the world could be better if you believe and you try Stop complaining about what you can't get
You won't know til you try

We won't stop, We won't stop (no no no no no no no no no no)
We won't stop til we try, We won't stop til we try
We won't stop (running), We won't stop
We won't stop til we try

[CHOURS] x2
