Edith, playboy, rolling stone
It's been 20 years since your first scars
Evel Knievel, rest your bones
They said of you, the boy'd go far

So please excuse if I have no news
I've made a new friend but she's in my body
Please excuse if I seem used
I'm out of time

You're there, I'm here, we ain't alone
I've wedded you across your stars
Edith, playboy, rolling stone
It's been 20 years since our first scars

So please excuse if I have no news
I've made a new friend but she's in my body
Please excuse me if I seem used
I'm out of time

So please excuse if I have no news
I've got a lot of change but I ain't got pockets
Please excuse if I seem used
I'm out of time, all out of time
I'm out of time
