Just existing have become your struggle
It keeps pulling you down
But one by one, I'm pulling you in

Behind the cutain there is no light
No life to hang on to
No sun to guide yor way
No place to rest your head

There's no hope nor glory where the darkness grows
Here only the black is real
And it will tear and consume you
Throw you over and wear you out

Give me all your dreams
And I'll kill every single one of them
I will not be afraid
My shadow self embraced

Call my name
Call my name

Just existing have become your struggle
It keeps pulling you down
But one by one, I'm pulling you in
I'm pulling you in
Everyone
One by one

Behind the mask there is no lie
No words to remember
No one but yourself
Nothing left but broken dreams
Can you piece together what you cannot see
Broken by reality
But now you're fading away
Smiling while you're bleeding out

Give me all your dreams
And I'll kill every single one of them
I will not be afraid

My titled self embraced

Welcome to the fires of burning rage
And on it goes over and over again
Feeding the flames with eternal pain
Tears and bones blood and rain
I believe in the chaos and destruction of the soul
Fill your lounges with a suffering breath
Fear and hate
Life and death

It will never give you hope
It will never give you piece
It will never give you hope
It will never give you piece

Feeding on your fear
Living of your soul
It will never stop
Feeding on your fear
Living of your soul
It will never stop
Feeding on your fear
Living of your soul
It will never stop
But I can take the pain away

Just call my name
Call my name

Just existing have become your struggle
It keeps pulling you down
But one by one, I'm pulling you in

Give me all your dreams
I will not be afraid
My shadow self embraced
I will not be afraid
