"All over the world tonight
Feet are hittin' the ground
The day is following night
The strong are leadin'

All over the world tonight
Clocks are spinning around
We're putting teh world to right
The weak are dreamin'

Crossing borders of innocence
Breaking down the walls of time
All over the world
It's a happening
It's happening tonight

All over the world
All over the world

We'll slay the dragon
It has to happen
Love is makin'
The future's breakin'

All over the world
Tonight

All over the world tonight
Love is always the verb
When the moments have gone
From our creation

All over the world tonight
The young fires have burnt
And now the heat is on
With this frustration

All over the world
All over the world

We'll slay the dragon

It has to happen
Love is makin'
The future's breakin'

All over the world
Tonight

guitar solo

All over the world tonight
You're gonna lose control
You leave by satellite
For deep devotion

Crossing borders of innocence
We're breaking down the walls of time
All over the world
It's happening
Tonight

All over the world
All over the world

We'll slay the dragon
It has to happen
Love is makin'
Future's breakin'

All over the world
Tonight
We're alright
Tonight
Aah.. aah...
Tonight!
