I follow the leader when I am blind
But it's gone way too far this time
It's open season on the weakened mind
They're dying one breath at a time

I'm dying to survive and barely getting by
What a crying shame
I'm standing on the edge, as close as I can get
What a crying shame

I'm not backing down from your threat this time
Refuse to fake my way through this life
But I'm on the edge and beaten to the core
And I've never been this close before

I'm dying to survive and barely getting by
What a crying shame
I'm standing on the edge, as close as I can get
What a crying shame

I'm standing on the edge, as close as I can get

I'm dying to survive and barely getting by
What a crying shame
I'm standing on the edge, as close as I can get
What a crying shame

Hanging off the edge
What a crying shame

Hanging off the edge
