Back stock still like rocks
When you don't know whose on your side
The Devil or God

All that time I spent dodging bullets
You spent perfecting your shot
"Oh, Vandagaurd"

But Noelle, you wouldn't understand
Noelle, you're a heart attack
Noelle, you wouldn't understand
Noelle, you're a heart attack

I scratch your back
You stab mine
Phantom Friend

Took a nap and I can see my death
Through my shut eyelids
It's (just) a heart attack

You are the wolf and
I am the wether
We love each other

But Noelle, you wouldn't understand
Noelle, you're a heart attack
Noelle, you wouldn't understand
Noelle, you're a heart attack

Noelle, you wouldn't understand
Noelle, you're a heart attack
Noelle, you wouldn't understand
Noelle, you're a heart attack
