I tried to forget the time that we had,
You turn off the light I leave you tonight.

Candles burning down inside,
It is dark where once was light.
Your emotions freeze my mind,
How could I've ever been so blind?

I gave you my hand but you took my heart,
I offered my soul and you took control.

(Chorus)

I'm goin' on!
I'll never be your destiny.
You were doin' me wrong!
You try to change reality.
There's a creep in your head!
You know there's nothing more to say,
There is no need to hide away.
You can be sure that I'll be,
Never back again.

Now I know that I was wrong,
No more reason to go on.
I leave behind that wasted time,
All these days I called you mine.

I try to forget the time that we had,
You turned off the light,
I'll leave you tonight.

(Chorus)

(never back again, never back again)
There's a creep in your head.
(never back again, never back again)

I tried to forget the time that we had,
you turn off the light I leave you tonight.

(Chorus)
