Scented pain and seperation defies the physics and the form that life must to exist consume and be reborn why is this strange attraction a call to arms my destiny? what choice or course of action?
will you leave a path for me?

Love laced with tragedy
a sense of agony
why can't i feel love as in a fairy tale?
my heart is growing pale
and now I've lost this...love

Systematically paralyzed from the soul out towards the eyes
what i feel i have no traction to hold or realize sinking into motivation i do not trust the things i've seen and now these lost and found sensations want to devour me.

Love laced with tragedy
a sense of agony
why can't i feel love as in a fairy tale?
and now I've lost this...

Love laced with tragedy
a sense of agony
why can't i feel love as in a fairy tale?
and now I've lost this...love
into profanity
my heart is suffering
why can't i feel love as in a fairy tale?
my world is growing stale
and now I've lost this...love
