The lazy moon is laying low
Stars are by her side
And though it seems no time at all
Since you were kissed with morning light
And though it seems the place of dreams
Is miles and miles away
And there is so much still to give
Your eyes they tell a different tale.

Oh when your tears fall they clear the way
Say goodnight
Tomorrow is another day

Sleepy eyes, sleepy eyes
Let nighttime be your pillow
Let the morning be your prize
Sleepy eyes, close your eyes
The dream that seems so far away
Is closer than you realize.
