"To Be With You"

I don't want to talk to you anymore
Words are worth their wisdom, only when you speak
the tongue
And I don't know anymore where you're coming from Nothing left to do or say, when everything's said and done

I just want to be with you.
I just want to be with you.
I just want to be with you.
I just want to be with you.

I don't want to argue anymore
Words are worth their wisdom, when they're not worth fighting for
And I don't care anymore about who's right or wrong
What has gone before, or what is yet to come

I just want to be with you.
I just want to be with you.
I just want to be with you.
I just want to be with you.

When we met as strangers, we recognized a road
Some things spoken, and some just understood
There are places where words do not go
There are places where words do not go
And in these places I lay down this burden
Cause darling, when everything's said and done

I just want to be with you.
I just want to be with you.
I just want to be with you.
I just want to be with you.
I just want to be with you.
I just want to be with you, darling.
I just want to be with you, darling.
