Don't care what you've done
Don't care where you've been
Cause I'm no stranger,
No stranger to sin
What ever you've crossed
What ever your pain
Don't you worry,
Cause I will be your sunshine
After the rain.

Feel me now.

Ring me on the cell
Hit me anytime
As long as we're together,
I know we will find
Perfect love and unity
Streaming from your heart right into me
Perfect love and unity
Streaming from your heart right into me

This Earth keeps spinning
Round and round
They say what goes up must come down
I'm still floating
Don't feel the ground
I was so lost but now I've found
Your fire burning, oh so hot.
Your love will get me through it
Always hits the spot
Cause you're the one, you're the one
We'll call it a night with the rising of the sun.

You're easy to remember
Hard to forget
And everything you've got
I want to get
Perfect love and unity
Streaming from your heart right into me
Perfect love and unity
Streaming from your heart right into me

This Earth keeps spinning
Round and round
They say what goes up must come down
I'm still floating
Don't feel the ground
I was so lost but now I've found
Your fire burning, oh so hot.
Your love will get me through it
Always hits the spot
Cause you're the one, you're the one

We'll call it a night with the rising of the sun.

You keep on waiting, we'll never be
Gotta get your move on, c'mon have some trust in me
In your eyes I see my sun, moon and the stars
I'll be your protection as we fly through the sky

This Earth keeps spinning
Round and round
They say what goes up must come down
I'm still floating
Don't feel the ground
I was so lost but now I've found
Your fire burning, oh so hot.
Your love will get me through it
Always hits the spot
Cause you're the one, you're the one
We'll call it a night with the rising of the sun.

We'll call it a night with the rising of the sun.
