You used to think that your life was in order
Knew how to get up and how to get ahead
Now these days you're living south of the border
Hiding out and sleeping in a different bed

But that's life
That's right

How many times did my friends always tell me
That man he just don't treat you right
Stays out all night til the wee little hours
Wake up girl, don't you see the light

That's life
That's right
That's life
That's life
That's life

My head starts hurtin'
When I turn out the lights

Can't seem to leave this crazy world to the night
No more tears, cause my well has run dry
Now I think it's time to leave this town
Now I think it's time I'm cornin' around

I used to think that my life was in order
I knew how to get up and how to get ahead
Now these days I'm living south of the border
Hangin' out and sleeping in my own bed

That's life
That's right
That's life
That's life
That's life

Oh yeah
That's life
I like it

Love it
Baby, yeah
