I can't tell what's real no more
And I don't know wrong from right
On leaving here I took the first express
Into the darkness and the light
Took me through
One thousand nights
And one more night
One thousand nights
And one more night

Stone by stone by stone
And sea by sea
I was lost and torn
And I was broken
I made a wish and what I wished for
Came out of light into the open
There were seven figures
Standing by the road
And seven places
For your dreams to go
Took me through
One thousand nights
And one more night
One thousand nights
And one more night
One thousand nights
And one more night
One thousand nights

And if you want it, come and get it
If you want it, come and get it
See them coming through the window
Going out there where your mind go
Silver breaks of light
Come through the walls
And now you're leaving
Silver breaks of light
Come through your skin
And now you're breathing
If you want it, come and get it
Never take it

Never break it
Took me through
One thousand nights
And one more night
One thousand nights
And one more night
One thousand nights
And one more night
One thousand nights
And one more night

Silver breaks of light
Took me through one thousand nights
Silver breaks of ligh
Took me through one thousand nights

Break it down
Break it down
Break it down
For one more time
Break it down
Break it down
Break it down, down
Down to your line
Take it down
Take it down
Take it down
Take it down
Just this night
Take it down
Take it down
Take it down
In this I
