this is from the dolly parton tribut album.this song is off of dolly parton's 3rd bluegrass album halos & horns oh,you're out there tonight with another and my pain is so dreadfully sharp i picture you with her and shudder it's like a dagger through the heart do you think that my feelings don't matter or your cheatin or hurtful remarks when you leave me all broken and shattered

(chours)

oh i know i'm a fool to keep staying when you've made hurtin me such an art tossed around like a used box of crayons

oh you've cut me to pieces so often like a knife or a poisonous dart i would be better of in my coffin,yes like a dagger through the heart

(repeat chours)
