her body lies under ashen skies she travelled far with no guiding star deep down inside an angel cries suffer the children in quiet despair love soon come my only prayer

refrain:

josey walsh come back
all is forgiven
josey walsh come back
no kindness forbidden heaven has you again the angles sing away the pain

The Sacrament of the heaven sent did not survive to see 35
deep down inside an angel cries she was once somebody's baby someone's baby refrain 2 x

she's travelled far with no guiding star
dying so lonely seem like solitude

it only made sense when she was under the influence and she fell into decline to the soundtrack from patsy cline, patsy cline
