Throw down your arms and come
Throw down your arms and come
Throw down your arms and come
Drop them

Two of us have a little fuss
Everything you draw your last
Everything you run for your gun
Everything you fling rock stone
Hear this

Throw down your arms and come
Throw down your arms and come
Throw down your arms and come
Drop them

A no ignorance'll do it
A no brute force do it
And your weapons can't do it

So throw down your arms and come
Throw down your arms and come
Throw down your arms and come
Drop them

Put them away to stay
Throw down your arms and come
Throw down your arms and come

As earth was from
My old grandmother mother mother mother
She was from
She usually say
Children children children children
Please obey

Throw down your arms and come
Throw down your arms and come
Throw down your arms and come
Drop them

Put them away
Put them away
I long to see you
I long to hold you
I long to take your hand in my hand
Can't you see, can't you see

Throw down your arms and come
Throw down your arms and come
Throw down your arms and come
Drop them...
