(w/ Aslan)

Here we go, running through the fields so slow
You always seem so incredibly real
I know you feel the same
Now we know, what we both need to know
When all of our dreams are convincingly real
The allergy stays the same
It's all up in arms
And some things will never change
But I'm okay

Now my dear, where do we go from here
When everything's looking so bright and so sure
I just know I won't feel afraid
Taking life so easy from here
I'm here
It's all up in arms
and some things will never change
But I'm okay
I'm here to stay
