Nobody understands how special he is to me
I was already down he mended my broken wings

There's a side to him that no-one gets to see
When no-ones around and it's just him and me

My friends say leave it but my heart is so sure
They say you're out scheming when you leave that door
As we move in time and you're love takes over me
When we get together

Only the other day we made a promise to keep
One day we'll settle down and start a big family
Just him and me

There's a side to him that no-one gets to see
When no-ones around and it's just him and me

My friends say leave it but my heart is so sure
They say you're out scheming when you leave that door
As we move in time and you're love takes over me
When we get together
