Woman and Man
The Time will arise
To lay down your Life
For all you think is Right...

[Verse 1]

Right here and now, is where it goes down in the Underground, we didn't even hear a sound when the top soil, began to boil, we were headed up tryin to touch the Surface, was the purpose, till they blew it up
And now we're stuck in the cracks, and the corners and there's trouble in the City, what a pity... man conditions real shitty We're drinking lead Water in the midst of a drought we ain't really owning nothin', so we're killing over clout Babies are starvin' in Mother's Womb, jails filled with hidden Tombs mental Novocain, but still the pain consumes Bio-bug everywhere, planting seeds in your hair diabolical, your follicle's showin' where your at, it's a fact they know where your goin' pin-point and exact Should have did the Knowledge on Cocaine in Tylenol but you were too worried about next years gear... no Respect just Fear

[Chorus]

Woman and Man, the time will Arise
to lay down your Life, for all you think is Right Children of Love, we all have the Key to our Destiny, we'll have our Victory

[Verse 2]

Yo we're all disciples, no guns no rifles in fact, we spread Love like scriptures in the Bible
The time is now for us to all break free...

cuz we're living in the state of Emergency and the Power struggle got us lost in the rubble I thought they said all men were all Equal

How is that, when now a days, this is something you can buy and most are unaware that we're living in a Lie the Poor get shunned, the Rich man's hailed now ask yourself, "Is this Heaven or Hell?"
with missiles pointed in East, North, West, South and Man versus Man, boy, what's that all about?
just a New World system, where your mind is the prison and you're trapped like the eyes to a Tel-Lie=Vision If we don't stop now, and heed to the call yo we're all bound to fall!

And as I lay in my bed, with my hands on my head an Angel called out to me, and this is what he said...

[Verse 3]

Here's a message to all who will Heed the call, and stand for what's real If we ain't ready, it's time we get so only God knows when this world's gonna blow Nation been long risin' against fellow Nation for the profit of a concrete plantation False doctrine still persuades by guilt and Fear...

But fear not, for our Redemption is here

[Chorus]

Woman and Man, the time will Arise
to lay down your Life, for all you think is Right Children of Love, we all have the Key to our Destiny, we'll have our Victory (repeat)
