"Fire In Me"

Visit "Fire In Me" on MotoLyrics.com

We've gone too far, and I know, I know
Guess it's time for me to go, I'll go
Say to me what you really are
Is it too hard?
I wonder why you have this sound
So alone now

Living I know, before seeing you go
Feeling the need to be your only other
Can you look in my eyes? I need to know how
Just tell me the truth now

This was not planned, it's out of our hands
I will confide in someone else
Even though it's unknown
I found the will to move on
Take what you are, 'cause I
Won't be there to hear you cry

You can't take this fire from me
'Cause you never deserved my heart
I can't afford to lose, not this time

Not this time, not this time, not tonight
