I'm waking up, waking up
To all the games that you've played
I'm taking up, taking up
The thought of leaving this place

Leaving all the stupid lies
And all the people I despise
Cause there's very little room
For the ones who take me higher

And I, I'm addicted to when you're gone
So just listen up closely
If you think that you had me all figured out
Well you're wrong
I'm addicted to when you're gone

There's not enough, not enough
Time to find a reason
Because things I love, are not enough
For someone I believed in

See I could find somebody right
With open arms and open eyes
With a bigger heart the biggest size
Because I'm falling through the ice now

And I, I'm addicted to when you're gone
So just listen up closely
If you think that you had me all figured out
Well you're wrong
I'm addicted to when you're gone

I'm so run down
Feeling strung out
It's like I'm losing what's left of me
I feel aimless
Almost faceless
I need to take what I can and leave

And I, I'm addicted to when you're gone
So just listen up closely
If you think that you had me all figured out

Well you're wrong
I'm addicted to when you're gone

And I, I'm addicted to when you're gone
So just listen up closely
If you think that you had me all figured out
Well you're wrong
I'm addicted to when you're gone
