There's magic in the air tonight,
The moonlit stars are burning bright.
Your face glows by the candlelight.
It's all because tonight's the night.
Now hold my hand and take this ring,
As we unite in harmony.
We can begin to live the dream,
The dream that's meant for you and me.

To be together...
For the first time in our lives, it's us together.
As married man and wife, we'll be together from now
on,
Until death do us part,
And even then I hope our heaven lasts forever.

I promise to be always true
Until the very end with you.
In good times and in bad times too,
I know that we can make it through.
As one united we'll be strong,
Because together we belong.
If I could sing to you a song,
I'd sing of love that won't go wrong.

If we're together,
We'll make a brand new life for us, together.
As married man and wife, we'll be together from now
on,
Until death do us part,
And even then I hope our heaven lasts forever...

We'll stay together from now on,
Until death do us part, and even then I hope our heaven lasts forever.
I know forever we will always be together
