So call the neighbor kids,
with trashcan lids and buckets on their heads
I'm telling you, we're gonna need a little help tonight

So hey man check this out Downtown's a riot and something's spreading through the crowd
Try channel 9, i'm pretty sure they're headed straight for this part of town
I can't be certain, but i swear i hear them just outside There's no way that this is real, so count me in!

So grab something sharp,
find some cover,
kill the lights and nail the backdoor shut
This isn't funny any more
Oh no, this means war

Don't take this the wrong way, I'd much rather choke and die than sit alone and fall without a fight

So call the neighbor kids,
with trashcan lids and buckets on their heads
I'm telling you, we're gonna need a little help tonight

So call the neighbor kids,
with trashcan lids and buckets on their heads
'Cause I'm telling you, we're gonna need a little help tonight

There she was,
glaring through olive eyes and chalk white skin.
I want you to know that I won't be holding back tonight.
She stole my heart
I'll be taking hers with a long dart now.
But look at the bright side
It's not like she had one there from the start

Something tells me, it's gonna be a long night

So grab something sharp,
find some cover,
kill the lights and nail the backdoor shut
This isn't funny any more
Oh no, this means war
And something tells me, it's gonna be a long night

So call the neighbor kids,
with trashcan lids and buckets on their heads
I'm telling you, we're gonna need a little help tonight

So call the neighbor kids,
with trashcan lids and buckets on their heads
I'm telling you, we're gonna need a little help tonight

So call the neighbor kids,
with trashcan lids and buckets on their heads
I'm telling you, we're gonna need a little help tonight
