You are about to experience it in it's reality.
In this moment, know yourself, and abide in that state.
I lie down in a river of love
Go to the edge and fall
Plunge to the deep and hold my breath
Braced against the oncoming
I lie down in a river of blood
Go to the edge and die a thousand times
Look to the viscous barrier
I might end, I might heal this night
At the point beyond which something will happen
At the point beyond which something will occur
The morning was fine.
I saw a red dragonfly land on the wall in front of me
The words of a Hiroshima survivor, Describing his surroundings ten minutes before the blast
