(i) First Gate - Open Yet Closed

Something inside's feeding on
The images I'm dreaming of

Dream on
Dream on
Dream on

(ii) Looking Heaven In The Face (Ghosts Of Jericho- Part 2)

We live in the darkness and never
Join with the river or the crow
We search for the eyes of the other
We could be the river and the crow

We live in the darkness forever
And don't see the river or the crow
We can't find the eyes of the other
It's inside the river and the crow

Now I see how it is
Just a journey like a wish
Something to die for, I don't know?
I know that things must change
Once heaven turns to rage
Come with me and let us look heaven in the face
