This is the world where you were born
And you're gonna have to get along
Why am I so disconnected
When everything's so clear?

Falling through my generation
(Calling on my generation)
Falling through my generation
(Calling on my generation)
Falling through my generation
(Calling on my)

It's a clear plastic world
There's nothing to gain
It's all the same

It's a clear plastic world
There's nothing to gain
It's all the same

Oh, hey, hey, hey

So what are you gonna do about it?
And will you take the same old shit?
Why are you so apathetic
With everything you fear?

Falling through my generation
(Calling on my generation)
Falling through my generation
(Calling on my generation)
Falling through my generation
(Calling on my)

It's a clear plastic world
There's nothing to gain
It's all the same

It's a clear plastic world
There's nothing to gain
It's all the same

Wait a second 'cause this don't gel
Living in a shell, I'm living in hell
When I break out I'm taking you out

Falling through my generation
(Calling on my generation)
Falling through my generation
(Calling on my generation)
Falling through my generation
(Calling on my)

It's a clear plastic world
There's nothing to gain
It's all the same

It's a clear plastic world
There's nothing to gain
It's all the same

It's a clear plastic world
There's nothing to gain
It's all the same

It's a clear plastic world
There's nothing to gain
It's all the same

Oh, hey, hey, hey
