Picket fences in decline
Out the way I'm comin' up
I'm connected, I'm infected
Now your fucking time is up

I know it's all sublime
But this is not a crime
Be rejected, not affected
It happens every fucking time

I'm wired, wired into you
Wired into your life
I'm wired, wired into you
Wired into your life

Living a life that's so obscene
From the sewer to the dream
Unpredicted, addicted
Living in this fucking dream

With all the shit that's in the way
Got to know just what to think
I can see it, gotta believe it
Now I'm on the fucking brink

Society is killing me
Society is killing me electrically
Society is killing me
Society electric

I'm wired, wired into you
Wired into your life
I'm wired, wired into you
Wired into your life

Stop believing everything
That you see up on the screen
Good to know you, had to show you
You know what the fuck I mean

Take the Hippocratic Oath
Then your life would be a joke

Automation across the nation
Got you by the fucking throat

Society is killing me
Society is killing me electrically
Society is killing me
Society electric

I'm wired, wired into you
Wired into your life
I'm wired, wired into you
Wired into your life

Society is killing me
Society is killing me electrically
Society is killing me
Society electric

I'm wired, wired into you
Wired into your life
Electric
