You're going nowhere and you don't care
No one understands you at all
The circumstances, no second chances
No one to talk about, so check it out

If indecision is your religion
You got it all but something's missin'
Open the doorway and see it your way
There's nothing left inside or in sight alright

The first day of nowhere
In your next life you're something
The first day of nowhere
And all along you thought you were alive

Don't give into the hype
Don't turn out the lights
I wanna see inside of you
You don't need my advice
On what to do with your life
I don't know what it's like for you

You're such a liar
I'm gonna set you on fire

It's your obsession with the progression
Of everything you say at confession
A work of fiction with no nutrition
When are they going to pay, today

The first day of nowhere
Today
In your next life, you're something
Today
The first day of nowhere
And all along you thought you were alive

Don't give into the hype
Don't turn out the lights
I wanna see inside of you
You don't need my advice
On what to do with your life

I don't know what it's like for you

It's just to let you know this is the new thing
You'll like it over time and then disobey
It's a dirty thing and it's all the rage

Now you're out of my way and I don't need you anymore
Now I'm out of your way

The first day of nowhere
Today
In your next life you're something
Today
The first day of nowhere
And all along you thought you were alive

Don't give into the hype
And don't turn out the lights
I wanna see inside of you
You don't need my advice
On what to do with your life
I don't know what it's like for you
