Jump back, juniper; don't forget the first time out.
Shacked-up chandelier; keep in mind that early doubt.

'Cause they'll shoot you down,
shoot you down, down, down.
Yeah, they'll shoot you down,
shoot you down, down, down.

Used to be a slight mistaker,
grown into a front page maker.
Won't you bring the sunset faker
home again, home again?
One day...

Makeshift miniver; cozy up to anyone.
Wake up, waterfall, take the blame for what you've done.
Bring it back again...

'Yeah, 'cause they'll shoot you down,
shoot you down, down, down.
Shoot you down,
shoot you down, down, down.

Used to be a slight mistaker,
grown into a front page maker.
Won't you bring the sunset faker
home again, home again?

Won't you think it's overrated
when the cover shot gets faded?
Am I getting through to you?

Turn around, embrace the shade;
you can still have everything you want.
