Late, middle of the night,
hear it in the hallways:
caught in another fight
forever and always.

Everything you want from me is everything I want to be
one day.
Everything you want from me is
everything I want to be.
I, I shoulda seen it coming.

Here we go again - is this the end?
Should I say I'm sorry?
We've been down this road
more times than I know
Should we say it's over?

Hate shouted in each line,
never shoulda said it.
Take just a little time
before you regret it.

Everytime I wanna stray
something makes me wanna stay
always.
Everytime I wanna stray
something makes me wanna stay.
I, I never see it coming.

Here we go again - is this the end?
Should I say I'm sorry?
No, let's go lie down.
The sun is out,
and it's now tomorrow.
