Just gotta make it to another Sunday;
never thought it could be that hard.
I gotta keep movin' on,
I gotta keep movin' on.

Gotta get a better look at the front page -
that picture's far too clear.
I gotta keep movin' on,
I gotta keep movin' on.

Woulda bet that I woulda been far enough
away; that's not the case.
Can't let this hold me down,
can't let this hold me down.

Pretty much gotta cancel my trusty subscription, outta control.
Can't let this hold me down
I just gotta go.

And if I stand my ground,
I'll get around the sound of "hit show."
I'm losing you in the crowd -
want you to see the me you don't know.
Just wanna make you so proud,
I do.

Just gotta make a first impression.
I've learned to play that game.
I gotta keep movin' on,
I gotta keep movin' on.

Doesn't anybody want this birdcage?
This cockatiel must go, too.
I gotta keep movin' on,
I gotta keep movin' on.

Guess I gotta make another reservation.
The atmosphere's not right.
Can't let this hold me down,
can't let this hold me down.

Looking up at a constellation,
those stars don't seem that bright.
Can't let this hold me down,
I just gotta go.

And if I stand my ground,
I'll get around the sound of "hit show."
I'm losing you in the crowd;
want you to see the me you don't know.
Just wanna make you so proud,
I do.

Look into my eyes,
whoa, whoa.
You may be surprised,
Whoa.

And if I stand my ground,
I'll get around the sound of "hit show."
I'm losing you in the crowd;
want you to see the me you don't know.
Just wanna make you so proud,
I do.

It wasn't meant to be -
she's stuck in a stupid TV.
It wasn't meant to be,
oh no. Here I go again.

I don't wanna go down,
I don't wanna go down,
I don't wanna go down,
as in a "down and out."
