"Putrefying Remains"

Your remains will putrefy

Pungent stench
formed by leprosy
unequelled disease

Vitality will escape carcass covered with dirt breath of life will flow in perishing light
no more passing time
eternal darkness

Fatal tread like a broken chain precarious existence remains in the silent pit of darkness in search for the light float in emptiness encounter the passage

Beautiful lustre floating garbs lead to your destiny deceit by demons and ghouls lead to your damnation eternal torture mutilated innovation endless pain

Life is a trail
the destiny of your soul

Your remains will putrefy

Repugnance
rehabilitates in our world immortal soul
anxious to know
multifarious lifes
uncertain creation
dimension of perishing existence

Carcass munched by maggots death eternal fear crypts of death

pang of conscience
your remains will putrefy
