Listen closely I think I heard a sound
Something's creeping around the corner
I went snooping I took a glance around
And countless secrets were all I found

Look back and what do I see
We've got company
Oh no, oh how can this be
We've got company
You tried to hide it from me
We've got company
Oh and who could it be
We've got

Danger, danger, I stumbled in too deep
Constant questions wont let my mind sleep
I took you, test you, you don't know I know
Watch your step, you're tangling, tangling

Look back and what do I see
We've got company
Oh no, oh how can this be
We've got company
You tried to hide it from me
We've got company
Oh and who could it be
We've got

All of this time I've been living in a lie
Such a bittersweet disguise
A beautiful disguise

Look back and what do I see
We've got company
Oh no, oh how can this be
We've got company
You tried to hide it, but we're gonna find it
And I cannot believe
We've got we've got
We've got company
We've got company
