Remember when you've said 'goodbye' first can I die, then I would fight
there is no hope in every kind a dope the same for your bottle of alcohol
you get down to the ground you don't care what's worth believing now I don't mind I'll turn you hot and sober till you will pray for mercy there is just one thing you go down, down, down There is nothing left to lose you can load my weapon, pull me through and if you're looking for your dealer trust me babe, I'll play the healer

the sweet brown sugar took her she didn't come back obsessed by taboos
Remember when you've said 'goodbye' first can I die,
then I would fight
there is no hope in every kind a dope the same for your
bottle of alcohol
If you're a true believer there is no time for feelings
Pray for mercy pray for mercy you go down, down, down
