Yes, I'm looking for the lady
I'm searching for the lady
Where could she be?

Baby I need someone who can treat me right or won't tell me lies
When we fight we can talk it out not to walk out and say goodbye
Someone I can love, someone I can trust
To be by my side and never give up

[Chorus:]

Because baby I don't wanna be lonely
Will you, will you be mine (will you, will you be mine)
And baby I wanna love somebody
Will you, will you be mine (will you, will you be mine)

Baby I'm tired of the single life
I need to modify
When I'm lonely she's by my side
When I need her to hold me tight
Someone to be there for the good times we share
It's a love that's so strong
More scary than worm

[Chorus:]

Baby I don't wanna be lonely
Will you, will you be mine (will you, will you be mine)
And baby I wanna love somebody
Will you, will you be mine (will you, will you be mine)

Will you be mine?
I'm looking for a lady
I'm searching for the lady
Where could she be?

Someone I can love, someone I can trust
To be by my side and never give up

[Chorus:]

Now baby I don't wanna be lonely
Will you, will you be mine (will you, will you be mine)

And baby I wanna love somebody
Will you, will you be mine (will you, will you be mine)

Baby I need someone who can treat me right or won't
tell me lies
When we fight we can talk it out not to walk out and say goodbye
Someone to be there for the good times we share
It's a love that's so strong
More scary then worm
To be by my side and never give up
Someone I can trust, someone I can love

[Chorus:]

So baby I don't wanna be lonely
Will you, will you be mine (will you, will you be mine)
And baby I wanna love somebody
Will you, will you be mine (will you, will you be mine)

Will you be mine?
