I want you mind, your body and soul, plant your seed
on me and we'll let it grow.
Nourish me with your love.
Shower me with life. Be my Man, be my strength, never take our love for granted.
Love me unconditionally, truly, deeply, passionately.

You are my light. You are my love, you are my life.
You are my all... You are my all...

Fulfill my fantasies.
Share our dreams and bring it to reality.
Look at me, hear me, listen to this heart carefully.
Take care of me treat me like your queen.
Make me feel that I am loved. Let me be the one baby.
Let me be the one...

You are my light. You are my love, you are my life.
You are my all... You are my all...

What I feel for you is beyond words of this world.
I cannot define.
So listen to the heart that speaks to you.
Objectives that playa's could only envy of being spoken about.
I'm not asking much from my better half.
I only need him to be here to be there when it counts
The only companions that I desire.
Wonder Of streets and in skies across seas as Free spirits... as free spirits...

You are my light. You are my love, you are my life.
You are my all... You are my all...
