I look at this,
Picture frame without the image between

Over, over canvas white and clean

There's something missin'
In a honey of a day I'm spending Too far, too far going down the road

of ours

I am, journey, in a name
Won't you say my name?
Grant me this wish
Give me love, give me love,
Or could you give me just another day
'Cause it's so blue in my eyes
'Cause it's so blue in my eyes

Give me sun, give me rain,
Or could you give me just another day
'Cause it's so blue in my eyes
'Cause it's so blue in my eyes

I see my sigh, floating up to heaven

in the sky
Full of, full of shattered hopes and bleeding dreams

I take a number for prescription for this melancholy

No more, no more I brush away my...

I am patience, perseverance
Come and take my hand, live forever
Give me love, give me love
Or could you give me just another day
'Cause it's so blue in my eyes

'Cause it's so blue in my eyes

Give me joy, give me pain,
Or could you give me just another day
'Cause it's so blue in my eyes
'Cause it's so blue in my eyes

I can see, I ....
I can feel, I ....

I picture me in a world without an expectation
I'm my, I'm my, I'm my own

I can see, I ....
I can feel, I ....

Give me love, give me love
Or could you give me just another day
'Cause it's so blue in my eyes
'Cause it's so blue in my eyes

Give me joy, give me pain,
Or could you give me just another day
'Cause it's so blue in my eyes
'Cause it's so blue in my eyes

Give me love, give me love
Or could you give me just another day
'Cause it's so blue in my eyes
'Cause it's so blue in my eyes

Give me sun, give me rain,
Or could you give me just another day
'Cause it's so blue in my eyes
'Cause it's so blue in my eyes
