(skit)

lots of people have dreams about becoming superstars....but there are people who have other dreams for those of you who tell people that they can't be a superstar quit haten...don't bring other people's dreams down cause you got one of yo own for those of you who wanna be a star keep that dream in your heart cause it will come true...just keep believein in yourself for those of you who have different dreams we talkin to yall too...just keep doin what ya doin to make that dream come true you might even be singin on stage with DC or rappin or droppin hot tracks with Lil Jon...just believe
