I don't think about the bad times
When you're not here
I only think of the good times
When you are near
The times when you take away
My sorrows, my fears
And I know I'll never find another like you

I don't think about tomorrow
When I have today
And I only feel sorrow
When you are away
And I will follow you if I may
Please don't leave me behind you

And if you hear my name on the wind
You know what you have to do
You must come to me there and then
And you'll have me
And I'll have you

And you will consume me
By night and by day
And when you are with me
I know what I'll say
I will command that you never go away
Oh, stay, stay
Don't ever, ever leave me
Never leave me
