Your repeating me lines, that you think I want to hear.
But I don't want to hear anymore. As if sorry is any consolation for what it's worth your stringing me along.
Should, should, shouldn't need anyone (you shouldn't need anyone) Your just scared of being alone. But by the time you figure this out, well I'm already gone.

Adelaide, you really had me going this time. Adelaide, you need to quit, quit making a scene. Adelaide you really had me going this time. Adelaide, you need to quit, quit making a scene.

You keep giving me signs that you think I want to see, but your nothing like you seem. Hide behind your half smile, but the truth is so undeniable.

Should, Should, Shouldn't need anyone (you shouldn't need anyone) Your just scared of being alone, but by the time you figure this out, I'm already gone.
Adelaide you really had me going this time. Adelaide
you need to quit, quit making a scene. Adelaide you
quit, quit making a scene.

Like lipstick traces on pillow cases, some things in life are unforgettable. Like love, loss, lies, and us, oh oh some things in life are undeniable. Lipstick traces on pillow cases, some things in life are unforgettable. Like love, loss, lies, and us, oh oh. Some things in life are undeniable.

Adelaide you really had me going this time. Adelaide you need to quit, quit making a scene. Adelaide you really had me going this time. Adelaide you need to quit, quit making a scene.
