Do you remember when we were just kids?
And cardboard boxes took us miles from what we would miss
School yard conversations taken to heart
And laughter took the place of everything we knew we were now

I wanna break every clock
The hands of time could never move again
We could stay in this moment (Stay in this moment)
For the rest of our lives
Is it over now? Hey, hey is it over now?

I wanna be your last first kiss that you'll ever have
I wanna be your last first kiss

Amazing how life turns out the way that it does
We end up hurting the worst, the only ones we really love

I wanna break every clock

The hands of time could never move again
We could stay in this moment (Stay in this moment)
For the rest of our lives
Is it over now? Hey, hey is it over now?

I wanna be your last first kiss that you'll ever have
I wanna be your last first kiss

Is it over now? Hey, hey is it over now?
Is it over now? Hey, hey it's not over now

I wanna be your last first kiss that you'll ever have (That you'll ever have)
I wanna be your last first love (That you'll ever love)
Lying here beside me with arms and eyes open wide
I wanna be your last first kiss for all time
